

SACRED GARDENS
a practical & philosophical workshop

MAY 9th-11th
Wells, Somerset 2014

SACRED GARDENS

a practical & philosophical workshop

A three-day, non-residential workshop on the universal philosophy, geometry and symbolism of the sacred gardens of the world. The workshop will explore how this knowledge may be applied when designing gardens today. Taking place in the beautiful and historic City of Wells in Somerset it will include illustrated talks with an introduction to Nature's profound spiritual symbolism, practical geometry and design classes and an opportunity to explore the Cathedral grounds and beautiful Bishops' Garden.

Cost: £360 per person
(Includes a delicious freshly prepared organic & vegetarian light lunch)

Tutors

Emma Clark - (MA RCA) specialist in Islamic gardens and their spiritual symbolism and Senior Tutor at The Prince's School of Traditional Arts, author of 'The Art of the Islamic Garden'

Tom Bree - (MA The Prince's School of Traditional Arts) geometer, artist, teacher and writer

Adam Hunt - (BSc MSc) landscape and garden designer specialising in holistic, sustainable gardens, partner in P U + H Landscape Consultancy (www.puandh.com)

A non-refundable deposit of £50 is required to book your place. There will be a welcoming dinner in an excellent, reasonably-priced restaurant in Wells the evening of Thursday 8th May for all who can make it (not included in the fee). Participants will be recommended good local Bed & Breakfasts/ hotels and restaurants.

For more information and booking please contact: info@emma-clark.com